COMMUNITY PARTICIPATION CONCEPT IN MIDDLE FORMAL EDUCATION DEVELOPMENT BASED ON SPATIAL CHARACTERISTIC IN BANGKALAN COAST

Name : Eko Setiawan
NRP : 3206 205 827
Mentor : Ir. Sri Amiranti, M.S.
Co-Mentor : Putu Gde Ariastita, S.T., M.T.

ABSTRACT

Development is community social economic process to a better direction. The indicator of development successful is marked with the increasing of education quality. On 2005, in Bangkalan district showed decreasing of school Participation Number. This condition showed that coast community interest in education is very less.

The purpose of this research is to determine the concept to increase community participation concept in middle formal education development based on spatial characteristic on Bangkalan coast.

A research method was conducted by descriptive and exploration research. Begin with searching the linkage of economic, social and cultural, and education facilities with community participation to formal education using correlation analysis method. Delphi analysis method was used to analyze the appropriate concept.

In conclusion there are three concept to increase community participation included increasing on shore economical development, role of ulama, and development of education infrastructure Bangkalan coast.

Keyword: Coast community, Education, and Participation