Systems information administration Population is a public service system that support the process of population administration, proper management is needed to support the improvement of the quality of public services in order good governance. It is necessary to evaluate and measure the maturity of information security preparedness at the Department of Population and Civil Registration.

KAMI Index is an evaluation tools for analyzing the level of readiness or maturity of information security in government agencies. Evaluation of the various areas of the target application of information security governance with the scope of the discussion standart ISO / IEC 27001.

The result of this study are expected improvement recomendation completeness and maturity of information security management system for public service providers, particularly in Department of Population and Civil Registration district Bantaeng.

Keywords : Index KAMI, information Level of Maturity
[Halaman ini sengaja dikosongkan]