Abstract

Widas times Nganjuk District is located in East Java Province. The river is flowing from the north slope of Mount Wilis and estuary / meet with Kedungsoko time before entering into the Brantas River north of Kertosono.

Because of the limited capacity of drainage Widas time and not functioning optimally bin area floods (Retarding Basin), then create a pool of water by surge flooding that inundated the existing agricultural land.

Planning Normalization In ST 94 - ST 101, the 1.6 km in length. Implementation of this project is an annual project. And the normalization of planning this time, the last job of the agenda of government projects.