Abstract

Department is an institution which applied tridarma university's function, there are education, research and community dedication. To keep the dedication and function, the department must be accredited by external quality guarantee institution. Accreditation process usually conducted periodically in every 5 years.

Accreditation borang management system is web base system which developed to help the department in collect fulfill information for borang accreditation and also create it. Nevertheless, using OLAP data for borang accreditation processed become report of student affair. This report serve in pivot table and chart.

Keyword: Borang Accreditation, OLAP