Digital Signage Software Development and Build Design for Information Service Using Kinect Media Controller Case Studies: Informatics Department ITS

Student Name: Ramadhani Tegar Perkasa
NRP: 5110 100 220
Major: Teknik Informatika FTIf-ITS
Advisor 1: Dwi Sunaryono, S.Kom, M.Kom

ABSTRACTION

Digital Signage is a software application for satisfying the need of information services as well as integrated information management. This kind of application is used by most of big corporation. The growth of this type of application has reached more areas, such as social business or education sector. Kinect is a modern development device form motion sensing input devices, which is developed by Microsoft for gaming or research purposes. The combination between Digital Signage and Kinect as motion sensing media is predicted to create more interesting, innovative, and interactive of information service.

Keyword: Digital Signage, Interactive Display, Online Digital Signage, ASP.Net, Vodigi Services