ABSTRACT

Art performances Center is convening a central place in the field of performing arts. The building is expected to accommodate all the activities of the appreciation of works of art in the Nganjuk city that doesn’t exist up until now. Activities that can be accommodated at the Centre for the Arts performances include performing arts activities music, dance, theater / roleplaying, which is modern and traditional. Besides that, this art performance center can also accommodate exhibitions of art works such as paintings, pottery, and sculpture / carving.

The existence Arts Center performances is expected to be one of the alternative tourism destinations both domestic and foreign, therefore other than as a performing arts center there is also a culinary tourist areas that provide food and special snacks, souvenirs Nganjuk city when the tourists a visit to this place.

Nurul Qomariah (3210100051)